Summary: On March 5, 2001, Richard Severy, Director, Public Policy, WorldCom, Inc. (WorldCom), met with Ellen Levine, advisor to Cmmr. Brown, in San Francisco. Also present was Evelyn Lee, Senior Counsel for WorldCom. WorldCom explained that certain important matters must be resolved before the local telephone market will be fully open to effective competition. Severy stated that entry to the residential and small business market is uneconomic because the price of unbundled network elements that competitive carriers must purchase from Pacific Bell (PacBell) greatly exceed the retail rate. WorldCom requested that the pricing problem be remedied soon. Lee stated that the recently completed operations support systems test highlighted significant deficiencies with PacBell's systems and processes, and that these need to be remedied. WorldCom also highlighted the fact that PacBell does not currently provide line splitting, as required by the Federal Communications Commission, but must do so in order to be eligible for consideration under Section 271.

Summary: On March 5, 2001, Les Guliasi, Director, Regulatory Relations, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), met with Linda Serizawa, advisor to Cmmr. Wood, and Tom Long, advisor to Cmmr. Lynch, in two separate meetings in San Francisco. At the meeting with Linda Serizawa also present was Maryam Ebke, advisor to Cmmr. Wood.

Guliasi stated that PG&E took steps to reduce staffing levels only because of the liquidity crisis. Guliasi added that the company is being forced to take cost cutting measures because revenues are inadequate to cover the ongoing costs. Guliasi stated that the proposed decision does not adequately recognize the gravity of PG&E's financial crisis, and that forcing PG&E to maintain staffing and service levels interferes with management's discretion to run the business. Guliasi stated that by requiring PG&E to refund any cost savings, the Commission has eliminated the company's incentive to cut costs through gains in efficiency. Guliasi stated that the monthly reporting requirement is unwarranted.

Summary: On March 2, 2001, Bruce Foster, Vice President, Southern California Edison Company (Edison), contacted Maryam Ebke, advisor to Cmmr. Wood, by telephone. Linda Serizawa, advisor to Cmmr. Wood, and Michael Hoover, Director of Regulatory Affairs, Edison, also participated in the conversation. Referring to Coalition of California Utility Employees' decision, Foster stated that the proposed decision ignores the fact that Edison is operating under a Commission-approved performance-based ratemaking and that there is no record support that there has been any reduction in reliability or service quality. Foster stated that the decision should be held pending further discussions with Edison's unions. Foster also stated that the proposed decision of ALJ DeUlloa was not in the public interest and could not be implemented as written.
